

Social Media Addiction Interviews

Positives of Social Media

- Many people use social media to keep in touch with people at long distances.
- Some people use social media to keep up with trends and various aspects of culture.
- Social media gives a sense of anonymity.
- It can also be fun to watch funny videos and play games online.
- Can expose you to worldviews you wouldn't otherwise have interacted with - encourages diversity of opinions.
- Sometimes it's hard for people to find a friend sharing the same interests in real life and the social media helps them make friends.

Negatives of Social Media

- Social media often brings misunderstandings among people who involve.
- Important things in real world often are overlooked because of addiction in social media.
- Users often find them be distracted from time to time when they are active in the social media.
- To find and confirm accurate informations in social media is time consuming.
- Social media can bring about anger.
- Social media can make you feel like you need to keep track of everything.
- Some people think it's annoying to share privacy with strangers on social media.
- Some people had difficulty processing real life interactions after spending time on social media.
- Some people who live far from home would become tired of contacting with family on social media which might ends up a bad relationship.